PACIFIC FLOWS INTO CANAL.

Waters Fill Big Section Where the Excavation Is Completed.

LA. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] PANAMA, May 18.—The waters of the Pacific Ocean were let into the Panama Canal today. A giant blast of 22,750 pounds of dynamite was shot, demolishing the dike to the south of the Miraflores locks and allowing the water to flow into an extensive section in which excavation practically has been completed.

YOUNG AGASSIZ MARRIED?

Wealthy Son of Harvard Professor Said to Have Wed Miss Maynes of Newton.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.] BOSTON, May 18.—[Special Dispatch.] If Maximilian Agassiz, the last unmarried son of Prof. Agassiz of Harvard, who became celebrated and immensely wealthy with the development of the famous Calumet and Helena copper mines, was married yesterday to Miss Laura M. Maynes of Newton, it cannot be positively verified today. Agassiz cannot be found to be asked about the report that his marriage took place and he is "out" to all callers at his home in the Back Bay. He could not be found at any of his clubs or common haunts. The engagement of the couple was announced some time ago by Miss Maynes, who was promptly announced as broken by Agassiz and then very soon after it was again announced that they were engaged and would be married.

Now comes the report that the marriage took place yesterday. Miss Maynes refused to deny or confirm the report of her marriage. She was found at the Oak Hill estate on Dedham road, Newton, recently bought by Agassiz from Eugene V. Thayer and which has been undergoing reconstruction under the joint direction of Mr. Agassiz and his bride-elect.

Miss Maynes was married said: "There is absolutely nothing for me to say at present. Later, at the proper time, I will speak to the paper in general, not to one in particular."

"LET'S CATCH UP," SAYS GOVERNOR.

KANSAS EXECUTIVE THINKS STATE TOO PROGRESSIVE.

Declares Legislature Should Close Meeting for the Next Eight or Ten Years and Give People Chance to Live Up to Their "Advanced" Legislation.

TOPEKA (Kas.) May 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.]

Gov. George H. Hodges would have the Kansas Legislature close meeting for eight or ten years so the State could catch up with the laws now on its statute books. For six years Kansas Legislatures have been passing the most progressive enactments in the country. Here are some of the "first things" Kansas did and which other States are copying:

Kansas blue sky law, copied by seventeen States.

Abolished common drinking cup, copied by twenty-eight States and the government.

Abolished the common roller towel.

Created the first small debtors' courts, where lawyers and fees are unknown.

Provided efficiency test for all bank employees.

Provided the first rating bureau for fire insurance.

Let the Legislature disband for a number of years until the State catches up," said the Governor. "We have a greater number of progressive laws upon our statute books than any other commonwealth."

ANGELENO ROBBED AT HOTEL.

T. M. Daly, Real Estate Man, Loses Five Thousand Dollars in Stocks in San Francisco.

[BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.] SAN FRANCISCO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, May 18.—[Special Dispatch.] Stocks worth $5000 and an order on the Ocean Shore Railroad for $300 and other valuables were stolen Saturday night from the room of T. M. Daly, a real estate operator of Los Angeles, in the Hotel Hala, No. 913 Mission street, according to a report which Daly today made to the police.

The loot consists in addition to 1027 shares of stock in the Los Angeles Investment Company, $900 in gold notes on the same company, and ten shares of Consolidated Builders and Loan Association stock.

Daly said the stock and money orders were in a leather handbag. He departed for Los Angeles to cancel the stock before it can be sold, but will return either tomorrow or Tuesday to aid the police in the search.

BAER PUTS IT STRONG.

He Denounces Presbyterian Elders Who Rent Property for Saloons or Immoral Purposes.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.] ATLANTA (Ga.) May 18.—Business activities of the four great Presbyterian bodies in session here will resume tomorrow afternoon after a Sunday remarkable for evangelistic effort throughout Atlanta. Large congregations today and tonight attended the scores of services led by some of the foremost divines in America.

Special interest was shown in the mass meeting of men this afternoon addressed by John Willis Baer of Los Angeles, president of Occidental College, making a vigorous plea for better living in general. Mr. Baer declared he would rather go staggering drunk to the gates of heaven, an unconverted man, than to go as a Presbyterian elder who has rented his property for immoral purposes or saloons.

Count Okuma was loudly applauded when he compared the attitude of the California Legislators with the anti-foreign movement in Japan half a century ago, which he said, "because they looked different, we did not consider them human beings. Japan finally saw the fallacy of position and became an admirer of everything western. The same causes underlie the California question, and we hope the Californians will see the folly of their position and truth and justice will triumph."

CLEAR CHURCH
DEBT IN DAY
TEN THOUSAND DOLLARS IN THREE HOURS.
Dedicated Services at New Harbor-Boulevard Methodist Church.
Results in Deluge of Subscribers from Congregation—Sermons by Visiting Ministers.
Ten thousand dollars was raised in three hours by the congregation of the new Harbor-boulevard Methodist Episcopal Church, Harbor boulevard and Second street, yesterday.
The church debt of $10,000 was covered and forty-one new members of the congregation were received, bringing the total to 235. Rev. J.
W. Neely is pastor.
Dr. T. G. Gift of Denver, probably one of the widest known Methodist ministers in the country, had charge of the dedicatory exercises and preached the sermon last night.
Dr. Matt A. Hughes of Pasadena preached the morning sermon. District Superintendent Larkin, Dr. R. A.
Healy and Dr. D. C. Franklin assisted.
The congregation inspected the auditorium, classrooms, young people's room, ladies' parlor, primary kindergarten room, social hall and young men's clubroom.
The church is equipped with a pipe organ.
The $10,000 necessary to clear off
the debt was subscribed in six orderings, five of the subscription lists being each being for $500.
WORK WILL BE RESUMED.
Contractor of the Main Pier at Venice Halts Money to Complete the Structure.
VENICE, May 18.—Efforts put forth by residents in the vicinity of the partially completed Maier Pier to have the structure finished so that concessions may occupy space this summer are about to bear the fruit of success, and this time the labor union walking delegate, one of which tribes stopped the work four months ago, will be banished from the job, which will be open to all good laborers who can be accommodated, independent of affiliation. The pier is to be finished by Augustus Stutzer, the contractor, who began the work, and who built the Santa Monica municipal pier.
G. C. Beaman, No. 31 Maier Pier avenue, is acting for the owners of property which is seriously affected by the stoppage of work. He is also acting as a conciliator between Eddie Maier and Stutzer, who have been at swords points regarding the pier.
Beaman says that Maier owns and controls $16,500 worth of stock, Stutzer controls $71,000 worth, and the remainder is divided between Ferris Weidner, George Wingfield, Dr. Shipman and Venice residents. According to Beaman labor union walking delegates came here and told Maier they would shut down his brewery unless he unionized the pier job and gave every man a big boost in wages. Maier put the proposition up and the unionists, who flatly refused the demands. Maier then closed the pay roll book. Stutzer and Beaman say that Eddie Maier has become interested in the Grand Western Amusement pier at Ocean Park and does not care whether the Maier pier is built or not. Now the residents are furnishing Stutzer with $23,000 necessary to complete the pier, taking part of Stutzer's stock at a reduced rate in order to enable him to do this. Stutzer says he will give the Maier Pier Co. when he finishes the pier and reimburse the residents.
CHILD DISAPPEARS
Police at Venice were today engaged in a search for 1-year-old Chaslotte Elizabeth Williams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Williams, of
No. 4614 Gordon avenue, Los Angeles.
Mrs. Williams is certain the little one was stolen while enjoying the sights of the pier with her parents this afternoon. Little Charlotte dropped from her mother's side as if the earth had opened to swallow her, and Mrs.
Williams, after waiting for four hours and sending her husband to search, gave the police a clew which led them to believe, as she does, that her child was kidnapped. The little one wears a white dress with a purple waist, brown shoes and stockings and a blue hair ribbon.
NEWS BRIEFS
At a joint meeting of members of the Civic League, Real Estate City Club last night the following committee was appointed to take up the matter of calling a bond election for the building of a $140,000 high school: J. M. Herndon, chairman;
Carroll J. Daly, R. A. Phillips, L. C.
Walker, O. P. Danby, Dan Daniels, F.
W. Chase and Al. McKee.
An extra squad of police watched the crossings closely today, and as a result the crowd of 27,456 persons which enjoyed a perfect day here, walked the streets and drove autos in safety. The bath-house did an enormous business and swarms went into the surf. The sand was thickly dotted with lunch and tea-and-parties all day.
POMONA MAN IN TROUBLE
Offers to Buy Little Girl Pair of Shoes and Is Arrested for Kidnapping the Child.
(BY DESK WIRE TO THE TIMES)
ST. PAUL (Minn.) May 18.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] H. Wolterman of Pomona, Cal., a St. Paul visitor, has determined never again to imperson-ate Santa Claus without a make-up, or any other time than the Christmas season.
Last night, imbued with the spirit of St. Nick, he grasped a 4-year-old child by the hand and started out for a store, he says, to buy a pair of new shoes. Her little sister told her mother she had been kidnapped, the police were informed and Wolterman was jerked from a Seventh-street car and carried off to the police station in the patrol wagon.
Wolterman is a wealthy California merchant and he comes to St. Paul annually. He sympathized with a little girl shabbily clothed yesterday and asked her if there was anything she wanted.
"I'd like a new pair of shoes," the child is said to have replied. "My toes are sticking out of the holes in these."
Wolterman grasped the child by the hand and boarded a street car, neglecting to mention his plans to her mother. Her sister spread the alarm and the authorities began the
"man hunt."
At Seventh and Wabash, Wolterman was taken from the car by an officer, who, in response to Wolterman's protest, recommended that he tell it to the judge.
He was taken in the patrol wagon to the station, where he produced his credentials, offered his explanation and was permitted to depart.

A CAMPAIGN TO SAVE MILLIONS.

Supporters of Flood Bill Working Effectively.

Landowners of This City Aid in the Movement.

National Director Tells of Ten Years' Fight.

That the prompt passage by Congress of the Nevada River Regulation bill will not only safeguard against great flood disasters in the future but will do more to promote business prosperity in California and other States than any single constructive measure that has ever been passed or ever will be passed by Congress, is the assertion of George H. Maxwell, executive director of the National Reclamation Association.

Maxwell says the association's campaign is being widely and effectively waged and that the movement has been materially strengthened by the support of the Arizona-California River Regulation Commission and hundreds of Los Angeles business men who see wonderful possibilities in the conservation of the waters of the Colorado and Sacramento Rivers.

Writing to landowners of this city Maxwell says: "If the Nevada bill had been passed ten years ago it would have greatly lessened the heavy losses suffered in the Ohio Valley from floods in 1917, estimated to have aggregated over $100,000,000. It would have saved the enormous damage caused by the great flood in 1912 in the Lower Mississippi Valley, amounting to over $200,000,000. It would have safeguarded against the appalling destruction of lives and property in the Ohio River Valley this year which may total over $200,000,000 and it would have prevented destructive floods in many other sections of the country."

"In the first ten years after its enactment that bill would have saved direct losses aggregating more than the entire amount of the appropriation besides safeguarding against similar losses in every like period for the future and conserving the flood waters for beneficial use and in aid of navigation."

"Our association has been working to good purpose for more than ten years when, two years ago, source stream control prevailed as a constitutional principle and was adopted as a national policy by the passage of the Appalachian National Forest Bill. The passage of the Appalachian bill was made possible through the efforts of our association and resulted in an understanding by which assurances were then given that the advocates of the Appalachian bill would support Nevada River Regulation measures, if it were introduced as a separate bill."

The Nevada bill was introduced in the Senate March 1, 1917. The campaign conducted by our association in its support during the past two years has been very successful and the advocates of the measure have been successful in securing an appropriation of $100,000,000 to be spent in ten years in the construction of actual work of flood prevention and stream flow standardization on the Mississippi, Missouri, Colorado, Ohio and Sacramento rivers. The bill provides that the construction work be done by United States army engineers and specifies a central tribunal of officers already in the government service whose duties and activities touch the several phases of the rainfall and flood problem.

The measure is now in the Senate and that body has already given on record in an overwhelming test vote in its favor.

By unanimous vote the International Convention of Young Men's Christian Associations decided day before yesterday in Cincinnati to come to this city in 1918. The news was received by Secretary Quillian of the Los Angeles association in a telegram from Arthur Lettis, who stopped over in Cincinnati for the convention on his way home from a Canadian tour. Lettis says the delegates were enthusiastic in support of Los Angeles as the meeting place and wrote in the highest terms of the education and ability of General Secretary D. E. Luther.

Members of the local association were much gratified with the news and expect that the exposition which will make the 1918 convention one of the biggest ever held by the association in the country. Los Angeles will claim for the exposition this year with the expectation that the meetings could be conducted much more and more convenient when the big exposition are being held.

A telegram to Secretary Quillian from General Secretary Luther states that President Lettis of the local association was elected Coast member of the $100,000,000 fund for river conservation. Lettis has been for several years a member of the international association and his election to the new board is a gratifying recognition of the work done by the officers of the Los Angeles association.

General Secretary Luther, accompanied by Boy's Work Director R. E. Green and Librarian J. E. Springer left this city a week ago last Thursday to join Lettis in Cincinnati at the convention.

At the convention, prominent speakers at the convention, which closed last night were William J. Brown, John R. Mott, Sherwood Eddy and J. Edgar Hoover, national secretary of China.

Shriners Back.

visitors day and night and even when the Los Angeles delegates established branch quarters in six other places in the city there were many more for the thousands who desired to greet the Angelenos and view the products of their fertile State. Dallas Shriners and the city generally gave the visitors a royal welcome and treated them to the best the Lone Star State afforded, according to the unanimous opinion of the visitors.

The return trip was made in noisy triumph. Vaudeville sketches, music and speechmaking enlivened the evening and many stops were made along the route. With the great "Times" train attached to the locomotive the rushing train awakened the echoes and turned out the inhabitants at every city and hamlet from Texas to California.

At El Paso the police and fire departments tumbled out in a hurry in response to what they termed the weirdest riot call they had ever heard. San Antonio's fire department was the first to get into action only to discover that their services were not needed.

POPULAR SIREN. About 1 o'clock yesterday morning the train stopped at a small town where many of the Shriners were busy to notice with the siren shrieking its shrill and the mangled band playing its best. The inhabitants turned out to their nightclothes and crowded what it all meant. Then came the sheriff. At first he showed a disposition to arrest the whole train and all its passengers, but when he would let them off if the siren would sound again for his benefit.

"I was sound asleep," he said, "and didn't exactly see the full benefit of that whistle the first time."

At the Grand Canyon the band gave a concert on the steps of the hotel and the Shriners would not stop answering questions about California. Many of them took the ride on horseback down the canyon trail.

WET HEADS POP OUT OF WATER.

Avalon Stirred Up Over Big Incorporation Talk.

Would Reduce Fares and Dig Deeper Into Trade.

Freeholders Seek to Break Banning Bonds.

A new chapter in the history of Avalon will be written today when the so-called "wets" of that city will present their arguments to the Board of Supervisors for the right to call an election for incorporation.

W. M. Lafavor and fifty others filed application May 15, asking that Avalon citizens be permitted to vote upon the subject. At the same meeting the supervisors may accept back the streets of Avalon deeded to the Freeholders Improvement Association four years ago, there being thirteen freeholders who formerly signed the agreement, which has been held in escrow.

The Santa Catalina Island Company, which owns 90 per cent of the property of the island, and 10 per cent of the island, announced yesterday that they would not be represented at the meeting.

Though secrecy has been maintained by the "wets," it is stated that among others the following freeholders had signed the streets back to the county of Los Angeles: William H. Herndon, Ben R. P. M. Lind, A. J. Woodman, Mrs. L. Baum and eight others. The petition asking for an incorporation vote was signed by the property owners and the rest were day laborers.

Until incorporated Avalon is now practically an open port. Not until the election of November 5, 1917, did the city of incorporation take foothold.

"NO QUESTIONS ASKED." "Why should we incorporate Avalon and pay excessive taxes?" exclaimed a saloon owner previous to the general election held in 1912. The present conditions are good enough for him. No questions are asked any one visiting the island.

Next year it is planned to run the biggest train that ever went out of the State to Atlanta, with Los Angeles, San Francisco and San Diego joining in the parade. All the patrols will go and a monster band of 100 pieces or more.

AERONAUTICAL. BALLOON RACE FOR PORTOLA. FESTIVAL PROMOTERS HOPE FOR NATIONAL EVENT.

San Francisco, Los Angeles and Oakland to Compete in Cross-Country Flight to Pave Way for Panama-Pacific Exposition Contest Which It Is Hoped to Arrange.

A balloon race for the Coast championship, in which Los Angeles will compete, is under consideration by the San Francisco Aero Club, according to advice received in Los Angeles yesterday. It is planned to hold the contest during the Portola Festival of October 25 to 28, next, when the 40th anniversary of the discovery of the Pacific Ocean will be celebrated in San Francisco. The race will start from the city, if the plans are carried through.

Los Angeles has several available balloons, the best suited for the contest being those owned by George Harrison and Dick Ferris.

Other competing titles would be the San Francisco Aero Club, in the former, J. C. Irvine, organizer of the San Francisco Aero Club, is ready to enter his Quaker of the Pacific, with a capacity of 47,000 cubic feet. Arthur Ellsbury's Fairy is looked on as another fair city contender.

Oakland's aerobics include the veteran Ivy Baldwin and Park A. Van Tassel.

G. M. Slaughter, president of the San Francisco Aero Club, is negotiating for the entrance of a California balloon to the national championship race to start from Kansas City July 4. The winner and second of that race will represent America in the international contest to be held in Europe.

The international contest is held in the nation of the victor and runner-up after it for 1915, in the hope of having it start from San Francisco during the Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

THEATERS LEAD TO ARREST. Malibu Hills Ranchers Quarrel Over Stock and One Is Incarcerated in the County Jail.

A neighborhood quarrel over the alleged trespass of stock in the Malibu Hills, twenty miles back of California, resulted yesterday in the arrest of Bob Wright on a charge of threatening to kill a neighboring rancher. The complaining witness is L. F. Foster, a homesteader, who alleges that Wright came to his place last Thursday and threatened to kill him.

Constables Haver and Ewen drove to Cornell from Calabasas night before last and early yesterday morning walked ten miles to Wright's ranch. They found their man asleep with a shotgun standing at the head of his bed. He was taken by surprise and made no resistance.

Wright was lodged in the County Jail last night with bail fixed at $3000. He will be arraigned in Justice Foster's court this morning.

Wright's attorney, however, is expected as the quarrel has spread through the neighborhood and the rancher is invited over the merits of the controversy.

Tapeline On Roar.

and I would miss them very much if they were removed."

Miss M. E. Leonard, a former school teacher, of No. 234 Parkside avenue, is the leader of the opposition. She started the petition through the neighborhood for the signatures of objectors.

"The first night that I slept in the neighborhood about one year ago I was awakened by a horrifying sound that I used to believe that some one was murdering a baby," Miss Leonard said. "Later I learned that the excruciating noise was made by a hyena at the animal farm. The beast kept it up. Then there is a general impression in the neighborhood that broken-down workhorses and maimed cattle are slaughtered and falls as food for the beasts. We constantly see decrepit horses led into the farm, but never see them come away."

There are other things in the neighborhood that are much more objectionable to Mrs. Jane McDonald, of No. 234 Parkside avenue, than the presence of the wild animals.

"The sound of persons hammering and sawing on Sunday morning is much more annoying to me than the noises the animals make," she said. "And there are other things going on in the neighborhood that should be eradicated before we turn our attention to suppressing the noise of the wild beasts. The animals don't know any better than to rear against their cages. I believe that they should not be censured. I have an idea that the proposed improvements at the farm would increase the value of the neighborhood twenty years and believe that I have a right to express an opinion."

"The melody of night sounds that come from the animal farm is unbearable to me," exclaimed Mrs. W. H. of No. 114 Hodge square. "We hear the roar of the lion, the laugh of the hyena, the scream of the panther and the yelp of the wolf all coming on at the same time. One of the animals will begin and that will start the others. Sometimes the noise of a passing train will start the animals. They snarl and howl and I have to come out on the porch and yell up and down to quiet my nerves as I can sleep."

WHAT BIG OTTO SAYS. You should hear "Big" Otto, manager of the farm, and his former owner, express his opinion of the persons who are "knocking" the institution. "I hope to die if the animal pens are not as clean as their yards," said "Big" Otto. "I know what started those people on the hill to making complaints. One of them came to me and represented that he had a wonderful kind of bird. He said it was a cross between a swan and a mud hen. He wanted to sell it to me for $25. I looked at it and said, 'Resolute, was a muscovy duck, which is as common as the nose on your face. I told him a few words and he left him my enemy. I think he is the one who stirred up this trouble. Half of the people who are making the noise are talking about the aid or consent of any other nation, is the question before the Police Commission, which is all marred up over the affair, but will endeavor to eat its way out next Thursday."

Attorney E. F. Gerech, representing Senegram, yesterday said that he didn't think anything about the Saturday meeting, but at a previous meeting he claims that representatives of "wets" were turned away by Varney and his assistants. He said that he was sure he did not come back.

The issue is between Philip Senegram and the Philip Senegram Company, said to be backed by the Great Western Smelting and Refining Company, a Maine corporation, which says that any individual, who sees fit to engage in the ancient and honorable pursuit of collecting the "tolgabs" or "bottlebones" of a city, shall follow his profession and the dictates of conscience, as the candidates for office say, without the aid or consent of any other nation, is the question before the Police Commission, which is all marred up over the affair, but will endeavor to eat its way out next Thursday."

JUNK TRUST'S BONES RATTLE.

Policemen Charged With Too Great Activity.

Senegram Faction Alleges Officers Butt In.

Fuss Over Securing License Involves New Factor.

As a result of a meeting of the Junk Peddlers and Collectors Protective Association held Saturday evening at 234 Parkside avenue, then the police alleged that H. L. Varney, policeman, secret service agent for the chief, and alleged "bouncer" at Zucco's Los Angeles street emporium of Sunday beer and cold tripe banquet, is "perniciously active" in the interests of the junk trust.

According to Buckharts the meeting was open only to those who were invited or would sign a petition praying for the granting of a license to Philip Senegram, leading figure in the internal war of the junk trust.

To enforce this requirement Buckharts continues, Varney and two uniformed officers were present to prevent invasion of the sacred precincts by junkies who profess to believe that there are tin cans and old bottles enough to go round and that any citizen who would engage in the business should be permitted to secure his license and start forthwith.

Buckharts says he is a member of the association in good standing, but when he presented himself at the meeting place he declares that Varney grabbed him by the shoulder and said in effect: "Nix! We don't want you here. Beat it."

S. Goodman, one of the best-known junkies, tried to see Buckharts, and he was turned back by a cop in uniform. One Kaplan, also a collector, he avers, was treated so roughly that he went to the market. Fisher, Friedman and Schwartz are other members in the organization whom Buckharts says were turned away by Varney and his assistants.

When he says, Varney turned a back to make sure he did not come back.

BUD ANDERSON RELIEVES BROTHER OF GOLD FANGS.

BY AL G. WADSWORTH.

PAIR of gold crowns were sacrificed to brotherly love at Jack Doyle's training camp yesterday afternoon.

Bud Anderson, the lightweight boxer, who is scheduled to step twenty rounds with Joe Mandot at Vernon arena tomorrow night, was putting on the finishing strokes to his training session.

Little brother Freddie was called upon to furnish two rounds of exercise for Mandot's slated opponent.

The younger brother is there with the mits himself and has served a strenuous term as a sparring partner.

A rare collection of gold crowns bears witness to the fact and the drama rehearsal put on by the brothers Anderson have always been catalogued as near escapes.

When the curfew tingled, Freddie went after Bud like a cat going over a back-yard fence. The gathering of pugilistic fans broke out with splashes of applause quite frequently and the Vernon purity squad was kept busy warning enthusiastic fight followers against giving vent to their approval in open-out tones.

Monte Attell, who was standing in the wings, remarked that Freddie would not be able to hold the pace in the next round. Johnny Schiff, who was signed up as the next victim, was looking on with gladness, hoping that Bud would be worked out before he went into the ring with him.

Three pokes in the knee, jolted Freddie's lower in rapid succession. The little brother ducked under a swing and expectorated a lump of spit into the palm of his mitt.

Side-stepping to the ropes, he slipped the specimens of dictional art to Earl Moken, the trainer, and continued the performance without a break.

At the end of the round, Freddie forgot to shake hands with his hard-hitting brother. While the crowd was applauding he came through the ropes and said to Dick Donald and Moken, who were examining the shiners, "Give me my gold teeth. What do you think you are going to do, take 'em up and back 'em?"

SPINNERS HADLED IN.

With the usual westerly headed well to the south, the boats were unable to carry spinners on the free run.

E3N—3½ knots to the off shore flag—Capt. Aspe tried it but had to haul it in and put out a balloon instead.

He soon led the fleet, however, Commodore Hubbell also overtaking Logan.

The boats rounded the flag in the following order: Mischief II, 1:20:20; Mischief, 1:21:10; Alert, 1:21:51; Marie, 1:24:10; Myra, 1:24:05; and La Jolla, 1:45:05.

In the race of 3½ knots into the flag just off Long Beach pier both balloons and spinners were used.

MISCHIEF AHEAD.

RITCHIE SIGNS FOR RIVERS.

Eddie Grancy Has Outbid Tom McCarey.

Championship Match Goes to San Francisco.

Billie Nolan's Own Account of the Match.

"Rivers has accepted no offer to fight Willie Ritchie in San Francisco," said Joe Levy last night.

"We would rather fight him in Los Angeles and we have a verbal agreement with Uncle Tom McCarey to fight here July 4. At the same time, what we want is the championship and we would fight Ritchie anywhere to get it.

"If a fight can't be arranged here, I am sure that Mr. McCarey would not stand between little Joe and the winning of the championship. I won't say what Rivers will or will not do until I see Eddie Grancy today."

BY BILLIE NOLAN.

(BY NOLAN'S OWN ACCOUNT.)

SEATTLE (Wash.) May 18.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) I have agreed to meet Joe Rivers for the 4th of July. Eddie Grancy, the San Francisco promoter, being the highest bidder, secured the match.

Grancy, in his telegram to me, named Rivers as Ritchie's opponent, so I presume the other end is attended to. Rivers now has the chance to pit his skill against the champion as far as the latter is concerned. He is now quietly preparing for action. When that day is over he feels certain of victory. Rivers looked for this opportunity. The time, date and place being agreed on, it is now up to him, if he has been serious, which I have no reason to doubt, up to the present.

"We have been busy showing for six months, or to use words of some of our friends, 'dodging' matches. We declared ourselves a month ago that we would meet the best lightweight procurable on July 4. We received many offers. No promoter was barred. All were given an even break. We are keeping our word and will be ready to answer the bell that will give the chance to any opponent who thinks he can wrest the title from the champion Willie Ritchie.

TWIRLER'S PERFORMANCE BORDERS ON PERFECTION.

Rodgers and Doane Are Only Beavers to Reach First Base—Former Walks Twice and Latter Once—Ryan Baffles Portland Batters With Change of Pace—Los Angeles Wins Both Games.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

STAND aside there, and make room for another in the hall of fame. The gentleman with the credentials is Jack Ryan. He has the password, and has qualified for a place in the men row.

Ryan, the baseball outcast of a year ago, fought the greatest battle of his career at Venice yesterday morning—a battle against fate and the luck of the diamond; a battle in which the odds were 1,000 to 1 against him—and won. At the end of one hour and thirty-eight minutes of heart-breaking effort, Ryan had hung up the first no-hit game of the season.

Nine full innings this bronzed, 25-year-old pitcher had held the batters at bay.

WALTER JOHNSON WINS NINTH STRAIGHT GAME.

BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.
WALTER JOHNSON, the great pitcher, won his ninth straight victory today when Washington beat Detroit, 3 to 1, in a game that was a real battle. Johnson allowed only one run, one hit and one error in his nine innings. He pitched a perfect game, allowing only one hit and one error. Johnson's performance was a real feat, and he was praised by everyone who saw him play. The game was a real battle, and Johnson was the hero of the day.

BILL ALDRIDGE TO BID FOR HEAVYWEIGHT BOUT.

Going After McCarty to Fight Winner of Smith-Willard Battle - Venice Promoter Figures on Bringing Such a Bout to Beach City for Big July Holiday Date. Mandot Favorite in the Betting.

BILL ALDRIDGE leaves tonight for San Francisco with a good-sized bid in his pocket to offer to the winner of the Willard-Smith bout and Luther McCarty, for his new club on the coming Fourth of July. But it is very much in earnest about it and there is no question about drawing a big house at that time. There will be at least 100,000 people at the beach on that day and if he carries out his plans on the new arena he will be able to handle any kind of a crowd.

Both Gibbons and Packy are in a class by themselves and as Gibbons can make the welterweight limit, it would be a great match and one that would draw a large crowd from the start. There has not been two such clever men since Jim Corbett and Ed McCoys fought years ago.

Aldridge is at work on his plans for the new arena now and will arrange the seating, entrances and exits to handle a crowd as fast as he can sell the tickets. Everything will be up to date. He has received more than thirty letters from Southern California points, commending him on his new club, all of which are boosting for it and promising to patronize him.

The management of his Venice four-round club has given the fans a confidence in his ability to handle any big affair.

"MANDOT WILL FOLLOW AD."

Bud Anderson Worries Not Over Contest.

Would Be Fisherman if It Produced Coin.

Fast Pace Will Never Get Hold on Him.

BY AL G. WADDELL.

Bud Anderson, the much-heralded "Fido of the Ring," finished his hitch of training at Jack Doyle's camp yesterday afternoon. He says he was never in better condition during his career. He also says that he will knock the pedestal out from under the New Orleans idea of Joe Mandot at Vernon tomorrow night.

TALKS OF MANDOT.

"He used to be a good boy and he may be yet, but I don't think he has enough of the old stuff left to bother me much. He can't hit and some people say I can, so I will elect Mr. Mandot to follow in the trail of Ad Wolgast."

At the supper table Mandot's opponent talked about cows and the fun he intended to extract from the hills back of Medford, when he gets back. "Great fishing up there. That's great sport, too. If there was half as much money in fishing as there is in boxing, I would be a fisherman, instead of a fighter."

TEAMS BREAK EVEN IN SOUTHERN STATE.

(BY DE WITT VAN COURT.)
SAN BERNARDINO, May 18.—(Exclusive Dispatch.) San Bernardino and Pasadena divided honors today, the visitors taking the morning session, 8 to 2, in the best exhibition of the series. A new recruit, with Shuster, held the locals helpless without a hit until the sixth. At that stage Pasadena had only reached Olsen for one run.

Markum was easy for the locals in the afternoon and would have been felled had he not been "beaten" in the seventh and carried from the field.

Col. Thomas of Oakland and His Staff Honored When They Arrive at Soldiers' Home.

SOLDIERS' HOME, May 18.—Col. W. R. Thomas of Oakland department of the G. A. R. of the Department of California and Nevada, with his staff officers, who are making their annual visit to various posts throughout the State, were tendered a reception at this place last night.

The visitors were met at the railroad depot by the governor of the home, Gen. P. H. Barry and staff, and proceeded by the Home band and the local posts, were escorted to the Soldiers' Home, where an evening of oratory and music was the order.

Gen. Barry made the address of welcome, and Col. Thomas responded. A number of veterans, among whom were Capt. Gibbons, senior vice-commander, added brief remarks.

A number of veterans, on invitation from the management of "Adopt a Soldier" plan, were seated in the auditorium in Los Angeles, attended the same yesterday, and are making the stay-at-home veterans of the day's enjoyment.

Invitations of a similar character were the order of the day. On May 11, a special train of the Pacific Electric line, on invitation of John S. McGroarty, conveyed a number of veterans to San Gabriel to be entertained by his historical production, "The Mission Play." There will be, it is expected, not less than 250 to 300 to accept the invitation. The party will be accompanied by Gov. P. H. Barry, Assistant-Surgeon Milliken and two of the Home's trained nurses.

PAVING PATHS TOWARD OCEAN.
Shenk Facilitates Probable Duties as Mayor.
Lays Foundation for Hustle in Harbor Work.
Procedure Ordinance to Bear on Charter Sections.

In an effort to make a special election unnecessary under certain legal contingencies, John W. Shenk, City Attorney and Municipal Conference candidate for Mayor, has been at work for two days upon ordinances providing methods of procedure for obtaining franchises and privileges both at the harbor and in the city proper.

These ordinances will be presented to the Council Tuesday for passage and submission at the city election two weeks from tomorrow for approval by the voters. That this approval is necessary was discovered by the City Attorney when investigating methods of granting harbor franchises under the new charter amendments. Under amendment No. 8, which was adopted and went into effect March 13, the Harbor Commission has jurisdiction over the whole harbor zone. Many applications are pending and Mr. Shenk made a thorough study of the charter to be sure that no improper franchises might be granted.

In this examination he found that the amendment to the People's Charter Commission, which was adopted, provided that the city may grant franchises, permits or privileges for the construction and operation of plants necessary or convenient for furnishing the city and its inhabitants with transportation, communication, terminal facilities, water, light, heat, power, refrigeration, storage or any other public service; to prescribe the terms and conditions of any such grant and to prescribe by ordinance, approved by a vote of the people the method of procedure for making such grants.

This seemed to mean that no franchise of any kind could be granted without a procedure ordinance approved by the people.

In the harbor amendment (No. 8), which Mr. Shenk prepared and which also passed, this provision was made regarding harbor franchises and privileges: "Such franchises, leases, permits and privileges shall be granted subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed therein and to the limitations of law, restrictions and reservations in this section contained, and further that no such permit shall be valid until approved by ordinance of the City Council."

"Because of this situation," said Mr. Shenk last night, "it seems better to submit a procedure ordinance both for matters in the harbor zone and also for franchises to be obtained from the Council. With such an ordinance in effect every possible requirement of the charter will have been complied with and no question as to the validity of any grant will remain."

"The ordinance submitted is simply a rule for the preliminary in granting privileges. It provides nothing more than the routine that shall be followed by any applicant for any kind of privilege and has no new matter relating to conditions or restrictions of such privileges. It is in compliance with the charter provision that a method of procedure shall be approved by the people."

"If it is not put on the ballot at this election it might cause delay in harbor projects later on, and should the legal question be raised that we had not adopted an ordinance of procedure by a vote of the people a period election might have been necessary to permit some desirable concern to make use of harbor privileges. In its adoption two weeks hence the chance of any delay is removed and the opportunity for Harbor Commission promptness in dealing with all matters is correspondingly advanced."

A copy of the procedure ordinance will be sent to every registered voter before election.

"Come In!"

PLAN PRECINCT SOIREEES TO GET OUT HOME VOTE.

ANTI-SOCIALIST COUNCIL NOMINEES.

Here are the anti-socialist nominees for the City Council, nine of whom are to be elected on June 3:

J. S. Conwell.
John W. Snowden.
H. E. Vollmer.
H. E. Osborn.
Alexander MacKeigan.
F. J. Whitten.
F. C. Langdon.
Martin Beckowski.
Charles McKenna.
W. J. Bryant.

The Municipal campaign which has its real beginning today is to be notable for the social features introduced by the women voters. A number of precinct societies are being planned at the private homes of enthusiastic believers in an administration of efficiency, honesty and decency as symbolized in the candidacy of John W. Shenk for Mayor and Albert Lee Stephens for City Attorney.

The Women's Campaign Committee is determined that the stay-at-home vote, which alone prevented the election of Shenk at the primary, will be brought to the polls two weeks from tomorrow, and to that end have already commenced an active district campaign.

Before the week is out there will be a Shenk Stephens and Municipal Conference Club in every one of the 465 precincts of the city. One of the first of these will be established this evening in Precinct No. 114, at the residence of J. E. Davis, No. 1218 New Hampshire street. A meeting of the Women's Committee will be held at headquarters this afternoon.

The most important social campaign feature of the week will be a reception for the women voters of Precinct No. 445, at the home of Mrs.

AL R. Smith, No. 6605 Huntington drive, on Thursday afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock. Mrs. John W. Shenk, wife of the next Mayor, and Mrs. Albert Lee Stephens, whose husband will be City Attorney in a few weeks, will receive. All women in the precinct will be invited, and if the natural modesty of the candidates can be overcome they will also be "among those present."

The Councilmanic battle has resolved itself into a question of Socialism with all that it portends in the way of hard times, bond depression, loss of credit and confiscation of property or a Council composed of business and professional men of tried efficiency. There is no middle ground here. It is red flag or good business. Shenk as Mayor with a Socialist majority in the Council would be an anomaly too serious for joking, and a condition which the voters are bound to see must be obviated at all cost.

The statement that Ross will receive a large Socialist vote is an undoubted argument in the minds of most folks that he should not be elected. The anti-Socialist Council ticket contains the names of J. S. Conwell, John W. Snowden, H. E. Vollmer, H. E. Osborn, Alexander MacKeigan, F. J. Whitten, F. C. Langdon, Martin Beckowski, Charles McKenna, and W. J. Bryant, from which list of ten, nine Councilmen are to be elected.

The Ross street campaign will be inaugurated tonight and the coruscating meetings maintained until the eve of election. The committee plans about 300 of these sessions. Automobiles carrying the speakers and a life and drum corps will leave headquarters in the Chamber of Commerce building every night at 7 o'clock. Tonight's meetings are scheduled for the southwestern part of town. A series of meetings for women are also to be held at the headquarters of the Women's Club in the Alexandria beginning later in the week.

I CURE PILES

PISTULA, ALL RECTAL DISEASES WITHOUT OPERATION BY MY PAINLESS DISSOLVENT METHOD

For twenty-five years I have been curing diseases of the rectum and lower bowel. During that time my experience as hospital and railroad surgeon, as college lecturer and professor, has enabled me to develop a method that is superior to all others. I cure without surgery and my patients are never confined in bed and never lose a moment's time from their business.

With my method I absorb pile tumors by medication, applied (or driven in) by a mild electric current. The piles are absorbed in a few treatments, leaving the rectum in a healthy, normal condition. There is no danger, no bad after effects and no pain or soreness.

My method is not a "home cure" or a "correspondence treatment," but it is an application of skilled treatment administered by me in my office.

If you are a sufferer from rectal trouble, I invite you to investigate my method thoroughly by talking or writing to any of my cured patients. If you will call at my office I will be pleased to give you the names and addresses of many well-known Los Angeles people I have cured, whom you may interview in regard to my treatment.

I TREAT NO DISEASES EXCEPT THOSE OF THE RECTUM AND BOWELS.

WELL KNOWN SANTA MONICA MINISTER CURED.

This is to certify that Dr. C. H. White has cured me of a distressing hemorrhoidal ailment of 15 years duration. His method of treatment is effective, but not severe. He has the aptitude, the knowledge and the skill born of many years of experience in this fruitful source of physical disease. He accomplishes all he claims in his advertising and at reasonable expense.

I take pleasure in heartily commending the life and his methods.

REV. EDWARD BROOKS CURED.

My Dear Dr. White: I wish to express to you again my heartfelt appreciation for what you have done for me. After suffering for years with the worst form of hemorrhoids, you have cured me of the disease, and I am now free from all pain and trouble.

SAWELLE DENTIST CURED.

For twenty years I suffered with a severe rectal trouble which was almost unbearable constantly on my feet. The pain from this affliction has at times incapacitated me from the duties of my office. Dr. C. H. White, however, has cured me of this trouble, and I am now as well as I ever was in my life. I desire to say to all sufferers that Dr. White is a skillful physician and is doing good work for humanity.

These Authors, Artists and Special Writers are all contributing to the highest class and highest priced monthly and weekly magazines published in the United States, and their united efforts, more than anything else, have combined to build up these great publications. We now offer this same class of superior literature to you with our regular Sunday Edition twice each month.

A Glance at the Contents of the June 1st Issue:

"THE COMING MAN OF MEXICO"

By GENERAL FELIX DIAZ
Illustrations from Photograph.

Against a background of revolution, anarchy and political disruption in Mexico, the figure of one man stands out clearly. That man is General Felix Diaz, nephew of the former dictator, Porfirio Diaz, and conqueror of the ill-fated President Madero. He will probably be the next President of his country, and everywhere in the United States, the question is being asked: "What will Felix Diaz do?" For we have a big stake in Mexico. There are nearly 100,000 American residents in the southern Republic, and millions of American dollars are invested in mines, ranches and lumber concessions. In the next issue of the Semi-Monthly Magazine, General Diaz tells frankly what his policies will be. His statement has been translated from the original Spanish, and is presented unedited and unabridged to the readers of this magazine. It is one of the most important articles of the year.

"THE COLLAPSIBLE HUSBAND"

By EDGAR SALTUS
Illustrations by Harvey Emrich.

Wouldn't this title alone compel you to read the story? What is a collapsible husband? Mr. Saltus makes it clear in his whimsical and fascinating piece of fiction as has come from his gifted pen. A woman is on trial for her life, and back of the tragedy are occult influences and strange motives. There is a district attorney who has vowed that this woman should die, and a lawyer who swears that she shall live. The final solution contains a surprise that will bring a gasp from every reader. Decidedly this is a story that is "different." The illustrations are by Harvey Emrich, an artist whose work is rapidly growing in popular favor.

"THREE SHEETS IN THE WIND"

By MORGAN ROBERTSON
Illustrations by Percy E. Cowen.

The American leading writer of stories of the sea is Morgan Robertson, whose "Wreck of the Titan" a few years ago so marvelously forecasted the Titanic disaster in every detail. He contributes a rattling yarn of adventure ashore and afloat to the next issue of the Semi-Monthly Magazine. Incidentally, he preaches not one but two powerful sermons, that landmen as well as mariners would do well to take to heart. Percy E. Cowen, himself a sailor born and bred, has done the illustrations.

WOMEN OF MARK

Sketches of women who are doing things worth while in the world's progress.

"THE ART OF THE ACROBAT"

By BRANDER MATTHEWS
Illustrations by Harry Stoner.

Another article by Professor Brander Matthews, dealing with a little understood phase of stage craft. The essential beauty of the human body and the poetry it is capable of expressing while in motion are his texts, and the result is one of the most readable articles we have ever printed. Professor Matthews traces the history of the art of the circus from earliest times, and includes many anecdotes of American and foreign acrobats. Harry Stoner's pictures are finely imaginative interpretations of the text.

"FRESH FINDINGS FROM MARK TWAIN"

By ALBERT BIGELOW PAINE
Illustrations by Horace Taylor.

A final installment of personal reminiscences and anecdotes about America's greatest humorist by this authorized biographer. These stories from real life are now appearing for the first time in the pages of any magazine.

"TOMMY'S GENERALSHIP"

By ROBERT V. HOFFMAN
Illustrations by George W. Woltz.

A story about boys that grown-up people, no less than younger folk, will enjoy. Three youngsters have decided that they intend to be soldiers when they grow up. Does that sound familiar? It is only the prelude to a real battle that has a laughable ending. There are some clever illustrations by George W. Woltz.

Editorial

"WHO IS THE RICH MAN IN AMERICA?"

By DR. ORISON SWETT MARDEN.

A timely reminder by Dr. Marden that dollars do not necessarily constitute wealth. The author makes a plea for unselfishness and service to our fellow men that ought to meet with wide popular response.

Cover Design.

"DOING TIME"

By M. M. GRIMBALL.

This is not a study of prison life, as the title might suggest, though the little boy who sits indignantly watching the clock certainly feels like a prisoner. It is a picture that you will want to save.

MAACON (Ga.) May 19.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Condemned by physicians to die in a given hour, a Macon, Walker, the millionaire who swallowed poison by mistake, still lives. Engrossed with the fear of passing doom he set his house in order on instructions of his doctors and made his will fully executed. But the moment has come and gone. He lives. And he may live on. The doctors now think so themselves. A nurse saved him. She heard of his case and, without what to do to him. He abided by her advice and is in a fair way to recovery.

CHANGE FOR THE BETTER.

For the first time since he accidentally swallowed a bicarbonate of soda tablet last Thursday morning there was a change in Mr. Walker's condition today which was very gratifying to his physicians. Without committing themselves, they state that the change today is distinctly favorable and is sufficient to justify the hope that the unfortunate young man may eventually recover. Mr. Walker was in bed practically all of the morning. He has a full realization of his situation.
